SHAFTER SAYS FOREVER.

United States Must Always Keep Garrisons in Philippines.

Buffalo, N. Y., (Special.)—Gen. William B. Shafter was at Fort Porter while returning to San Francisco. Interviewed on the Philippine situation he said: "I regard the insurrection as broken. So far as the Tagals are concerned the insurrection is practically ended. As to what may occur among the other tribesmen over there I cannot say."

"How long will a garrison be necessary in the Philippines?" was asked. "Forever," he replied, "and by forever I mean during your lifetime and mine."

THE AMERICAN ATTACHE.

A Report That He Was Missing Contradicted in a Despatch from Jacobabad.

London, (By Cable.)—Lloyd Weekly News paper publishes a despatch from Modder River, under date of Friday evening, saying that the American and Austrian attaches are reported to be missing.

Another despatch, dated at Jacobabad the same day, states that Captain Slocums and the Austrian attaché are at that place.

BOERS SHIELDED THE CONVOY.

Half the Drivers and Leaders Killed, and 180 Wagons Captured.

Crooked, Cape Colony, (By Cable.)—Details have arrived here with respect to the capture of the British convoy at Blot River. It appears that the wagons were laggard near the drift, and that the convoy was attacked by 1,800 Boers with four guns. The shelling continued all day.

One hundred and eighty wagons were captured, containing provisions and forage. Half the drivers and leaders were killed or missing.

SHOT SWEETHEART'S FATHER.

Iowa Young Man Does Murder on His Way to Church.

Ottumwa, Iowa, (Special.)—Leslie Eastburn, aged 21, shot Jasper Sutton, an aged citizen of Bloomfield, three bullets penetrating Sutton's abdomen and causing almost instant death.

Eastburn called at Sutton's home to take Sutton's 18-year-old daughter Alice to church. The father met Eastburn at the door and ordered him away. An altercation ensued and Sutton followed Eastburn to the road. Weapons were drawn by both men. Eastburn fired first, the older man falling before he could raise his weapon.

Employees of the General Electric Railway Company of Chicago engaged in a pitched battle with Western Indiana Railroad men for the possession of a street crossing. Several were badly hurt.

Mr. Alex. Seabright, the Oyster King, at 11th and H Sts. N. E., begins right by ordering the CITIZEN for a year.

Mr. Philip Lederer, the Dyer and Scourer of 1203 H St. N. E., whose card appears in another column, is an expert at cleaning and dyeing garments of every description. By his secret process even the most delicate fabrics are cleaned and dyed without injury. He does either dry, steam or wet cleaning; scouring, dyeing, altering and repairing, and has a reputation that makes his guarantee of satisfaction amount to something. He is a graduate from the establishment of the late Anton Fischer.

After sending in a dollar for a year's subscription, Mr. Evan H. Tucker, the enthusiastic and hustling President of the Citizens' Association, said, in reference to our work in behalf of this section of the city, "I am with you heart and soul in this work, and will help you in any way I can." Such assurance from such a man is very gratifying.

The Commissioners have put in a supplemental estimate of $12,000 for one eight-room school building in the Northeast.

Mr. John R. Colvin, the very efficient financial secretary of the Citizens' Association and one of its old stand-bys, will enjoy reading the CITIZEN for the next fifty-two weeks, and we hope for as many years.

Let's all join in and talk Northeast Washington as a good place for suburban people to locate in when they sell their country homes.

Mr. E. Jahn hands us a dollar for 52 visits of the CITIZEN. He is one of the most enthusiastic members of the Citizens' Association.

President Louis P. Shoemaker, of the Citizens' Association, has been on the sick list for a week.

KEARSARGE IN COMMISSION

Largest Battleship Under the American Flag—Captain Folger Will Command the New Vessel.

Newport News, Va., (Special.)—Another new battleship was added to the United States navy when the Kearsarge, the largest, speediest and most powerful first-class battleship under the American flag was formally placed in commission. General Superintendent Walter A. Post, as the representative of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, turned the big vessel over to Captain W. M. Folger, who received it for the Navy Department.

Rear Admiral Barker, commandant on this station, arrived from Norfolk navy yard at ten o'clock on a government tug. He was accompanied by a number of officers and their ladies. He was met by Captain Folger, Captain Chester, of the Kentucky; Superintendent Constructor J. J. Woodward and General Superintendent Post. At the appointed hour the officers of the Kearsarge were lined up on the upper deck. Superintendent Post formally transferred the battleship to the government with a few appropriate remarks, and after receiving the ship, Captain Folger read his orders from Secretary of the Navy Long, authorizing him to command the ship.

An immense flag was raised at the ship's stern, the pennant was raised aloft in the aftertop, and the naval post band played "The Star-Spangled Banner." Preparations were made to fire the rear admiral's salute in honor of the commandant of the navy yard as he left the ship, but, at his request, this part of the ceremony was omitted. Captain Folger has not decided when he will take the Kearsarge to sea.

The vessel is now complete, from the exquisite furnishings of the admiral's and captain's cabins to the varnished linoleum on the deck floor. The first draft of seamen for the Kearsarge arrived from the Franklin at Norfolk. A detachment of sixty marines arrived shortly after on the steamer from Washington. Just as the flag was raised the Cape Charles steamer arrived with two hundred and fifty seamen from the Vermont, at Brooklyn, comprising the crew of the battleship Massachusetts, now out of commission. A full marine band is now being mustered for the new ship. The full complement of 520 has not been secured.

DYNAMITE AND BARBED WIRE.

How Boers Repulsed Attack Near Crocodile Pools.

London, (By Cable.)—Further details of the attack made by Colonel Plumer's forces on the Boer position defended by a 12-pound cannon, near Crocodile Pools, Bechuanaland, show that as the British were struggling up the hill in the dark, through a net of barbed wire, they alarmed the Boer watch dogs, which raised a cry.

The Boers opened fire and the British charged. But the burghers exploded dynamite mines, doing much damage, and the British retreated.

WILL HAUL DOWN FLAG.

Two Islands Recently Annexed Are Spanish Territory.

Washington, (Special.)—Upon representations of the Spanish government to the effect that some of the islands south of the Philippine archipelago, which had been taken possession of by United States gunboats, were really the property of Spain, the authorities of the State Department have examined the charts and concluded to direct the withdrawal of our claims to the islands of Cayayan, Sulu and Cibu, both of which lie without the boundary lines laid down by the treaty of Paris.

Smallpox Hinders Mail Delivery.

Washington, (Special.)—The smallpox epidemic in West Virginia has caused considerable trouble there with the transportation and delivery of mail. The chief difficulty is that the postmasters do not understand how to properly fumigate mail, and at the suggestion of the postal authorities the Marine Hospital Bureau is preparing instructions to postmasters as to the methods to be used in disinfecting.
